16/36CO OPEN SPACES REPORT (See separate document)

The Cemetery and Open Spaces Manager presented his report and the committee discussed each item.

1. Concerns were raised over the graffiti in the Skateboard Park and it was agreed to attempt to remove as much as possible and to raise the matter with the Police.
2. An allotment inspection is due and the committee were keen, in view of the long waiting list, that plot holders were using their plots. If not, action should be taken to end their agreement. It was also agreed to write to all plot holders to inform them of this and to notify them of the annual Wells in Bloom Allotment awards and that judging would be taking place at the end of July.

16/37CO CHRISTMAS LIGHTS 2016

The RFO reported on ideas for this years display. It was agreed to proceed. The Open Spaces team would again volunteer their time and all Councillors would be asked to help with traffic management when the lights are erected. Paul Toole would again be asked to assist.

16/38CO MAINTENANCE REPORTS

1. The Mayor, Cllr Gibson, reported a loose paving slab in Market Place.
2. Cllr Kennedy reported a tree obstructing a street light in Strawberry Way and also thanked the Open Spaces team for sorting the new waste bin by Westfield Garages.

16/39CO ANY OTHER MATTERS OF REPORT

None.
